

Town-Wide Hunt Clue List

Each of the following clues represents one place in town. A single certificate can be found at each of these places; obtaining and returning the certificate to the Saugus.net booth at Founders' Day will win you a free T-shirt and the envy of millions. Well, maybe not millions. Some of the places also have other gifts for the lucky searcher.

1. This house has seen a lot of history, or at least a lot of historians. Ask for Nancy.
2. Check under the swings near the largest alliterative body of water in town.
3. Merchant's Row? What an original concept! Ask for Donna.
4. Right on the line, Stella's is fine. Ask for George.
5. Within a hair of the studio? Good. Ask for George.
6. Not too many places to find lots of ice this time of year; check the home of the Buskis. Ask for Kevin or Joe.
7. Not all books in the Center are in the Library. When you find this one, ask for Bob.
8. Play area of the precious knolls; look under the table.
9. Diana's banking on you finding her before 1:00; we hope you'll co-operate.
10. We dare you to ask for Jeff while keeping in touch with large vehicles.
11. Before you go too far, take the time to smell the strawberries, and ask for Bob.
12. Ever have a book for a friend? Ever meet a friend of a book? Ask for Mary Rose.
13. Finding this playground should be elementary. One hint: it's not in Lynn. In fact, check around the home area.
14. This tower is suitable for royalty. Ask for Mike.
15. Once, the willows wept here; today, look around the street hockey area near the soccer field.